

Michael O. Harmening

Present Position:	Land Surveyor/ Technical Lead/Cadastral Field Survey Branch, Contract Section, Bureau of Land Management, Alaska State Office, Division of Cadastral Surveyor
Education:	Oregon Institute of Technology, Klamath Falls, Oregon , Bachelor of Science, Land Surveying, Associate of Engineering, Public Works Engineering Technology, 1990
Licenses:	Registered Professional Land Surveyor, Alaska
Work Experience:	1990-2000	BLM, Alaska State Office, Branch of Field Surveys, Field Section, Cadastral Field Surveyor.
	2000-2002	BLM, Alaska State Office, Branch of Field Surveys, Contract Section, Cadastral Field Surveyor, Field Inspector.
	2002-2005	BLM, Alaska State Office, Branch of Policy and Survey Records, Cadastral Surveyor & Reviewer.
	2006-present	BLM, Alaska State Office, Branch of Field Surveys, Contract Section, Cadastral Surveyor, Technical Lead.
Experience as an Instructor:	Taught several informal classes for BLM surveyors and realty specialists on a verity of topics ranging from the concepts and application of GPS Technology to specifics dealing with the Public Land Survey System in Alaska. Instructor for Advanced Cadastral Surveys IV – Non-Rectangular Surveys.
Other	Instrumental producing and developing approved policy for the Alaska State Office, Division of Cadastral Survey. Served on several technical committees responsible for developing procedures and guidelines for Cadastral Surveys. Key role developing a GPS program within the Alaska Branch of Field Surveys in Alaska.	