

Jack M. Kesler, PLS, USMS

Present Position:	Retired, but still out there surveying some stuff, Kingman, AZ
Education:	University of Arizona, BS in Physics, MS in Geodesy
Licenses:	Registered Professional Land Surveyor, Arizona and Nevada Appointed as a U.S. Mineral Surveyor
Work Experience:	1964-68	University of Arizona
	1968-70	U.S. Navy, served in Viet Nam
	1970-71	University of Arizona
	1972-1978	County Surveyor, Mohave County, AZ
	1979-1989	Self-employed
	1989-2004	City Surveyor, City of Kingman, AZ
	2005-Present	Retired
Experience as an Instructor:	Jack has used his extensive knowledge in geodesy and mineral retracements to conduct many seminars and speak at conferences on these and related subjects. Well known in AZ and NV, Jack has been very active in professional organizations and activities. He has also taught several times for BLM.
Other	Jack has written dozens of technical articles published in various state surveying organization magazines. He continues to advise BLM on mineral survey issues and has taught this subject at NTC.	